Category:Utility software Category:Windows-only software Category:Embroidery software Level-5 has revealed a whole new, albeit short, teaser for Gravity Rush 2. This latest trailer introduces protagonist Kat, aka Katarína, as she dons the Blue Lantern and flies around the world on the back of her little monster. After being too scared to fly back to Kazami's house in the Gravity Rush series, Kat is in good company with this new sci-fi fantasy adventure. The Gravity Rush series has always had a strong attraction for me. I love the cult-like following it's gained over the past several years. Level-5 has done an amazing job throughout their recent titles and I look forward to their next project. Kat's power is based on the sky – from the 'sky she's born' scene. Katarína's power is unique – it's a meteor that re-arranges itself and becomes her. Katarína isn't the only character we will get to know. Find out about the next characters we will be meeting in Gravity Rush 2 in our upcoming hands-on preview. The original Gravity Rush was released for the PS Vita back in 2013. This new title will be available on the PS4 worldwide on January 29th, 2019. Pre-orders have already started in Europe.
